Picking a Christmas pageant is always a fun task. By September the church publishing houses start sending their catalogs full of promising examples. The education committee and I pour through each in an attempt to find the perfect play, and this year, I do declare, we found it!

Faith Drama is a specifically Lutheran publisher of plays for every occasion. They pride themselves on plays that are theologically sound and accessible enough for even the most amateur of actors (not that our kids fit that bill-they rock!). But the best part of Faith Drama, if you ask me, is that they are willing to think outside the box. So when we went looking through some of their material we were encountered by pageants that had flare and prospect like few others.

Faith Drama has Christmas pageants that spoof American Westerns. They have a pageant that takes place aboard Captain Kirk's Enterprise. They even have a pirate themed Christmas play. How great is that? Now I know that you are all dying to know which we choose, and I won't keep you in suspense.

Drum roll, please.

This year's Christmas pageant is titled, "The Children of Bethlehem." You heard me right. This year's play is called "the Children of Bethlehem," and, just like it sounds, it takes place in Bethlehem... not in some spaceship light-years away or American west. The backdrop to this story is really pretty simple.

And that's the beauty of it.

Christmas may be the most over-commercialized, over-popularized, and over-dramatized holiday on the planet. In the midst of such excessiveness, sometimes it is nice to get back to the basics. A child is born in Bethlehem.

I hope we can all take a page from our education committee and follow their example. These next two months are going to bombard us with temptations to go nuts. To spend more than we can afford and eat more than we should. But what if we get back to the basics and keep things simple.

So may we remember it's not the feast that makes thanksgiving special, it's God's blessings. May we remember it's not the amount we spend on our families or "save" on Black Friday that makes Christmas, it's God's presence. May we remember it's not the production that makes Christmas Pageants special, it's the story.

A child is born in Bethlehem. It's as simple as that.

Hopeful,

From Jim Vitale Youth Director

Merry Christmas!...in October?

I wandered into the local Dollar General before Halloween in search of a pair of plastic vampire teeth to adorn a small pumpkin I planned to carve. Unfortunately, I didn't find any plastic teeth (I mean, come on! What self respecting dollar store doesn't sell plastic vampire teeth!?). Anyway, what I did see was a wall of Christmas decorations. Flabbergasted, I walked out of the Dollar General muttering to myself about timing and the complete lack of regard for both the Halloween and Thanksgiving seasons.

Now I admit that I get more upset about these things than I should, but what really bothers me is that we completely skip the Advent season. Now as Lutherans, you are probably all familiar with Advent. But how many of us actually observe it? How many of us actually take advantage of it? Typically, the day after Thanksgiving we fire up the Holliday music, start baking cookies and count down the days until we can finally tear into our presents and spend all day in our pajamas. Then, on December 26th, we sink into Christmas depression as we take down the tree and prepare for a long winter ahead (oh yeah then there's that New Year's thing where we make promises we never keep, but that's a subject for another time). We jump from Thanksgiving to Christmas and miss Advent altogether.

We all know what it is like to wait. We do it all the time. We wait for dinner to come at restaurants. We wait for text messages to send. We wait for email responses. At Christmas time, we wait for the day when we can finally open our presents. Well, Advent is a season of waiting. It is a time for us to prepare ourselves for the coming Christmas, for the time when Christ will be born into the world.

Preparation is important. Just as we have all waited, we have all had to prepare, too. Ever forgot to prepare for a test? You have to prepare for a sports game by practicing. And you have to prepare your food, too. Otherwise you would be eating raw chicken for dinner. Gross. Well, just the same, we have to prepare for Christmas because ultimately, it isn't about the gifts. It is about Jesus coming to the world to redeem us, to save us from our sins, to show us the love of God and draw us closer to Him. Now you could just jump right into that season, but ultimately it is so much better if you spend some time preparing your heart for the upcoming celebration.

So this Advent, take the time to be in Advent. Don't spend all your time wishing it were Christmas. Take the time to examine your heart and see what needs work. Take time to thank God for the many blessings of this life. And take time to get to know Him more. That way, when Christmas roles around it will be so much more fulfilling because it will be a celebration of the God who loved you so much that he sent his only son that you may not perish, but have eternal life!

So, have a merry Christmas, but before that, have a purposeful and powerful Advent.

The peace of Christ be with all of you!

Jim

Opportunities to Give

Coats

Clean out your closet and help a neighbor in need all at once. Join us in donating gently used coats that will be collected and distributed to those who need them most in Wyoming County. The coat box is located near the piano in the parish hall, but hurry fast, winter is setting in and we hope to get these coats to the cold soon.

Pantry

November and December are very busy months for both (Arcade and Delevan) of our local pantries. Unfortunately, many families' tables will not be lavishly set this holiday season. But we can help. Here are three things you can do this Thanksgiving and Christmas to help those in need.

Give food to the pantries. Simply bring your donation to church, place it in the shopping cart, and we'll make sure it gets where it needs to go!

Donate money to the pantries. Did you realize that both of our pantries buy most of the food they give away? That money comes from the generosity of others. To give to the pantries simply identify your gift is for the pantry in the offering plate, and again, we will make sure 100% of it helps feed people in our area.

Give your time. Both of our pantries help feed hundreds of families a month, and that help is handed out entirely by volunteers. Maybe God is calling you to be one of them today? On Thursday, November 21 you can help prepare Thanksgiving Dinners at the Delevan Pantry, or contact PS for more information on when the pantries need help the most.

Christmas Tree

Keep watching for the 2013 Giving Tree to be erected in the parish hall. Once it is please find a tag. Each one has been filled out by an adult in one of SASi's local houses. Help make that person's holiday extra special by providing them a Christmas gift this season. Once your gifts are wrapped, simply bring them back to church and place them under the same tree.

Advent Giving

This year's Wednesday advent donations will support our mission giving to the greater church. Thanks to our gifts missionaries are supported around the world as Disaster Response continues to supply help for those affected by Sandy. Through our gifts God is feeding the hungry, clothing the cold, and caring for the lonely.

Education

Confirmation

The next confirmation class will take place on Wednesday, November 6 from 7-8pm. We will be looking at the Apostles' Creed and writing our own statements of belief. This marks the half way point in our confirmation year (5/10 classes). Remember to turn in your missed class assignments if you have missed and that each of you needs 12 sermon notes by next May. Contact PS with questions.

Confirmation Winter Retreat

From Friday, December 27-Sunday, December 29 our 7th through 9th grade youth are headed to Lake Chautauqua Lutheran Center for a weekend of winter camp. They will join confirmation youth from St. John, Williamsville and Nativity, East Aurora for the event. LCLC Summer staffers (Charlie Kenline, Chris Lipuma, Katie Brestead, and Mary Brestead) will be coming back for the weekend as Pastors Shawn, Scott Hannon, and Tim Freed lead the event. The cost is $50, and we will travel to and from camp as a group. Contact PS as soon as possible with conflicts and to receive the make-up assignment.

A Look Ahead:

Hey 5th Graders! Don't forget that this January you will be spending your Sunday Morning Education time with Pastor Shawn as you learn all about the church year. You don't want to miss it!

Christmas Pageant!

This year's Christmas Pageant is called The Children of Bethlehem. It is a great pageant that is sure to captivate worshiper as the story of Christ's birth is brought to life. This year's pageant will take place during the 10:30am worship service on Sunday, December 22.

Practices:

To prepare for the pageant our youth will gather for practices on the three Wednesday nights prior. Those dates are December 4, 11, & 18. We will meet for pizza at 5:30pm and practice at 6pm. All youth who want speaking parts are required to attend at least 2 of the 3 practices. Our littlest youth (ages 3-2nd grades) only need plan on attending the practice on December 18, unless they'd like to attend more. We are always looking for parent volunteers to help coordinate kids and keep our practices running smoothly.

Youth activities

Stick around after church on Sunday, November 24th for an afternoon of bringing in the Advent season by decorating the sanctuary and church. Many hands are needed to transform our building and grounds. Thank you for your help making this happen!

Church Council

Our church council will meet at 6pm on Wednesday, November 6. Please note the early meeting time to account for confirmation.

Celebration Sunday & Annual Meeting

On Sunday, November 10, we will pause as a congregation to give thanks for God's activity among us in this past year, as well as look ahead to the next. Many of you have been hard at work making Hope a happening place where God's grace is available and God's presence is real. It is important for us to stop and acknowledge his work through your hands. We also know that we cannot know where we are going unless we look ahead. This is an invaluable time as a congregation to come together to reflect on our life as a church.

Teddy Bear Project

Do you know someone who is struggling? Please feel free to take a bear to share our love and concern with them. When you take one, please contact Pam Bradford (716) 353-5909 or the church office, so that we can keep of record of where they go.

Nativity Scenes

As we center our hearts on God's son and remember the reason for the season, we invite you to bring any old Nativity Scenes you may have lying around to church. We hope to surround ourselves with the Christmas story as Christ is born again in our hearts. Write your name on your set and pick it up after the Christmas season, or leave it at church with our growing collection.

Hope is Happening!

Sunday School Pumpkins greet worshippers on their way to church as our youth's light shines from the inside out of them!

Being a Christian is like being a pumpkin. God lifts you up, takes you in, and washes all the dirt off of you. He opens you up, touches you deep inside and scoops out all the yucky stuff - including the seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc. Then he carves you a new smiling face and puts His light inside you to shine for all the world to see.

Our Preschoolers singing the Hippo Song!

Some preschoolers getting messy with finger paint!

We recently added two more students to our roster and now have 17 students! We are continuing adjusting to the mixture of different personalities & are enjoying getting to know another group of parents.

We have a visit from the Arcade Fire Department coming up and are looking forward to that.

On November 20th we will host our 8th annual Stone Soup luncheon for families & friends of the preschool. You are WELCOME to join us! Please let us know if you are interested.

We look forward to seeing you & performing for you at our Christmas program on December 15th during the 10:30am worship service.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU...to EVERYONE who contributed to our basket raffle during the quilt show. We raised enough money to send one child to preschool for one year!

If you feel called to help the Preschool, but are unable to volunteer, consider making a donation to our financial assistance program. We often have families who want to send their children to Hope, but who can't quite make the $90 monthly tuition payments ($810 for the year). We have always made it work for those families, but it often leaves us struggling financially. If you choose to make a donation to this program, please place it in an envelope labeled "Preschool" and place it in the offering plate. You can also drop donations off in the church office or mail them. THANK YOU to those who have already given so generously! Knowing that we will be able to provide financial assistance to future families without hurting the school financially is a wonderful feeling.

Blessings,
Chris Kipfer, Director/ Teacher
