We moved recently and I completely underestimated the impact it would have on nearly every aspect of my life. Getting the girls up, ready, and out of the house each morning is almost impossible. Finding matching socks (or socks at all!) hasn't happened in 11 days. And 3-4 hours of sleep on a mattress on the floor in the middle of boxes now constitutes as a "good nights sleep." But none of that compares to the real struggle of moving. Prepare yourself for the horror. We no longer have a DVR.

Seriously, I'm three weeks behind on The Walking Dead, and I've been reduced to watching the Bills games on an 11" TV connected to an antennae in my garage. The struggle is real. But there has been one saving grace. On the same television that has brought me the shallow and disappointing performance of the Bills, I caught a show running on reruns I never would have seen otherwise at 1:30 in the morning the other night. It's called "One Day At A Time," and I might be the newest fan. And I'll give you three reasons why:

1. It's from the 80s, and those were the days.
2. It actually resembles real life, unlike virtually every sitcom on TV these days (think about it).
3. But mostly, because of an episode I saw that gave me hope. I'll unpack that last one.

"One Day At A Time" is about a single mother raising her two teenage girls in an apartment building where she befriends the building's super, Schneider. At some point a young boy, named Alex, moves in with the family and becomes just as connected to Schneider. Until, that is, he burns the super's camper to the ground after trying a cigarette inside. Reluctantly he confesses, and the adults in the show lose it. Schneider tells the kid he never wants to see him again. Alex is crushed. Full disclosure: So was I. Later, however, Schneider returns to let the boy know the new terms of their relationship. They are no longer friends. They will no longer speak to each other for a period of time lasting no shorter than two years. But even as he talks you can see the reality of his words sinking in, and he begins to relent. Two years becomes one becomes six months becomes three becomes dinner that night. And the whole thing happens unlike Modern Family or Blackish with a punch line so you feel good, but in a raw and uncomfortable way that somehow still feels resolved and ...right.

A few weeks ago we heard together in church that "...all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God" (Romans 3). We don't need a DVR or an antennae to watch people fall apart, because daily we watch our relationships with God, with each other, and with creation suffer. We sin against God. We do not love our neighbors as ourselves. We do not love ourselves. And the punishment for that disobedience and sin is that we no longer get to be in right relationship with God or any one else.

At least it's supposed to be. That is, if God were willing to let us get the punishment we deserve. But God is not. We also heard from Romans 3 that "now all are justified by God's grace as a gift." And Romans 5 says that God has given us the message and the ministry of that reconciliation for the sake of the world.

We may watch our world fall apart daily—on our televisions or in our lives, but we were not created for that isolation and conflict. We were created for harmony, relationship and peace. And God will see that through. Schneider couldn't imagine not speaking to Alex who had become like a child to him for any amount of time; no matter how mad or disappointed he was. And God will not consider a world where God is not in relationship with us; whether we deserve it and no matter what we have done or will do. Through Christ, God makes things right with us and calls us to do the same with each other, "one day at a time."

Opportunities to Give/Serve

Pub With a Purpose

Thank you to all who attended this year's Pub with a Purpose. Through your participation we were able to raise over $7,000 for Lutheran Charities of WNY and the Agencies they serve.

HOPE'S QUILT SHOW: We sincerely thank all of the many people who helped out in so many different ways to make the Quilt Show so successful. As of this date, the amount raised is $4,287.81 profit. THANKS!!

Pantry

November and December are very busy months for both (Arcade and Delevan) of our local pantries. Unfortunately, many families' tables will not be lavishly set this holiday season. But we can help. Here are three things you can do this Thanksgiving and Christmas to help those in need.

Give food to the pantries. Simply bring your donation to church, place it in the shopping cart, and we'll make sure it gets where it needs to go!

Donate money to the pantries. Did you realize that both of our pantries buy most of the food they give away? That money comes from the generosity of others. To give to the pantries simply identify your gift is for the pantry in the offering plate, and again, we will make sure 100% of it helps feed people in our area.

Give your time. Both of our pantries help feed hundreds of families a month, and that help is handed out entirely by volunteers. Maybe God is calling you to be one of them today? On Thursday, November 19 you can help prepare Thanksgiving Dinners at the Delevan Pantry, or contact PS for more information on when the pantries need help the most.

Turkey Drive

The Outreach committee is collecting Turkey Donation (10-12#) or money ($20) to purchase a turkey for our local community. Our goal is to collect 25 turkeys as a congregation and you can track our progress with the turkey in the parish hall. Please have any donations to church by Sunday, November 15th to be distributed on November 20th.

Giving Tree

Keep watching for the 2015 Giving Tree in the parish hall. Once it is up, please find a tag. Each one has been filled out by an adult in one of SASi's local houses. Help make that person's holiday extra special by providing them a Christmas gift this season. Once your gifts are wrapped, simply bring them back to church and place them under the same tree.

From Intern Arin!

I would like to start by saying how amazing these past two months have been! The time has really flown by and a lot of that has to do with the congregation. You have all made this transition for me so easy and have all welcomed me so warmly that I cannot express how grateful I am for that. In my time so far, I've begun to get a feel for the church and what Hope is all about. I've been able to experience the Quilt Show, which absolutely blew me away with not only the fellowship that came out of it but also the amazing quilts that were shown, I was able to be a part of Pub with a Purpose, which was a lot of fun to be able to work with some of the pastors of Buffalo but it also showed me the amazing fellowship once again that comes out of the church, I've been able to go to the youth nights, help out with Confirmation classes, and also teaching the 3rd graders with Pastor Shawn about the Bible, hanging out with the kids has been a ton of fun to see where they see God in their lives but also to see how Hope has influenced them.

Throughout all of this, I have also been able to experience some pastory things which have included a funeral, some visits to members of the congregation that cannot make it to church, and also taking part in the worship services as Congregational Deacon. All of these experiences are definitely helping me to see where God is calling me to after the year here at Hope.

These new experiences are helping me each day to help me decide if seminary is the next step. Thankfully, in the next few weeks I will be able to take another step towards that decision in visiting two seminaries that I am interested in. I am going to visit the seminaries at both Gettysburg and Philadelphia and I cannot wait to see what these trips have in store for me!

Thankfully, I still have time to decide what the next step is and I'm truly blessed that I get to spend that time here with all of you. I really have enjoyed the time I've had here so far and cannot wait to see what the next few months have in store!

Red Cross Blood Drive

The next Blood Drives will take place on Tuesday, November 17 and Thursday, December 10 from 11:30-5:30pm.

Care Givers Support Group

The Care Givers Support Group will meet on Thursday December 3rd at 6:30 .

Committee Coffee House

The next Committee Coffee House will take place on Wednesday, December 16 @ 6:30pm prior to the evening Advent Service. In addition to regular meeting work, we will also be tying up loose ends from the year.

Church Council

Church Council will meet on the Second Tuesday of December (12/8) at 6:30pm. If you have anything you'd like Church Council to be aware of or discuss, please let PS or Bob Vossler know.

Wednesdays in Advent

Wednesdays are jammed packed in Advent with opportunities to worship, come together for fellowship, and serve our neighbor. Each week during Advent (December 2, 9, 16 & 23) we will gather for worship at 11am with our entire community. Lunch will immediately follow at no cost. At 5:30pm our youth will take over church as they begin to prepare for their Christmas Pageant (set for 12/20). At 7pm we will gather for worship yet again with Evening Prayers.

Advent/Christmas Decorating

Stick around after church on Sunday, November 22nd for an afternoon of bringing in the Advent season by decorating the sanctuary and church. Many hands are needed to transform our building and grounds. Thank you for your help making this happen!

Nativity Scenes

As we center our hearts on God's son and remember the reason for the season, we invite you to bring any old Nativity Scenes you may have lying around to church. We hope to surround ourselves with the Christmas story as Christ is born again in our hearts. Write your name on your set and pick it up after the Christmas season, or leave it at church with our growing collection.

Celebration Sunday & Annual Meeting

On Sunday, November 8, we will pause as a congregation to give thanks for God's activity among us in this past year, as well as look ahead to the next. Many of you have been hard at work making Hope a happening place where God's grace is available and God's presence is real. It is important for us to stop and acknowledge his work through your hands. We also know that we cannot know where we are going unless we look ahead. This is an invaluable time as a congregation to come together to reflect on our life as a church.

Please bring a dish to share for the event and a thankful heart. We will gather immediately following the 10:30am service.

McCLOSKEY Scholarship:

Application forms are available in the Church office for the Martha McCloskey Scholarship. You may apply to receive this scholarship if you are attending college and have not already received this assistance in the past.

Community Thanksgiving Service:

There will be a community Thanksgiving Service on Sunday, November 22 at the United Church of Christ in Arcade at 7:00pm. An offering of food and monetary donations for the food pantry will be received.

Preschool Tuition Assistance

Hope's preschool is poised to have another great year. Not only did we fill our class in record time over the summer, but we exceeded our class size limit and were able to add another teacher for a class of 24 students. In an effort to make sure every family and child that would like to attend Hope is able, we offer financial assistance on a need basis. This, however, dips into our operating costs. To help offset the cost, please consider making a donation to our tuition assistance program today.

We're off to a great start for our 2015-16 school year! Our new groups of students (& parents) seem to have adjusted well & we are enjoying getting to know everyone.

THANK YOU to everyone who supported our basket raffle during the quilt show. We raised $900 for the program!

We enjoyed a visit on Oct. 26th from Miss Bev from Catt County Public Health –who talked to us about the importance of handwashing. And on Oct. 31st the Arcade Fire Dept. visited with a truck and the ambulance.

We have our annual Stone Soup lunch coming up on Nov. 18th & look forward to performing for you at our Christmas program on Dec. 6th during the 10:30 worship service.

From Mr. Chris

Greetings Hope! Sorry if I sound a little enthusiastic but we are entering my favorite season of the church, Advent!

Advent is the season where I kind of feel bad for my friends who don't participate in church. Christmas is a very exciting time for everyone but I feel like something would be missing without church counting down the days until sweet baby Jesus is born.

I know there are some of you reading this and thinking to yourself its only November! we have to survive Thanksgiving with the family before we can even think ahead to Christmas. I have no problem containing my excitement for Christmas because Thanksgiving is also my favorite time of the year! I thought I knew what Thanksgiving and the season of Christmas was all about, that's until I asked my friend Matt what his plans for the holidays were. You see lets rewind to a time where I was 17, had long hair and had a poor attempt of a mustache. Matt and I were sitting at lunch and it was the day before Thanksgiving. I just had finished giving him the long list of all the traditions my family and I do for the holidays so I asked what he was up to. Matt really didn't say much and me being me I kind of had to pull it out of him. Finally he said for thanksgiving he doesn't do much, he himself goes to the store and buys an entire thanksgiving meal and brings it to a less fortunate persons home and feeds that family for the holiday. Boy did I go silent, here I just finished telling him how I stuff food into food and eat so much that I feel like I am in a coma and he drops that on me. I asked him why? why would someone decide to do that, and how do you choose what family? He continued to explain to me that when he was a young boy he and his family did not have much. When the time came talking about the holidays in school he would shy away from it, because he knew that there was no feast being prepared for him that day. He told me that one thanksgiving day there was a knock on the door, he opened the door to find everything needed for a thanksgiving feast on his porch. Was this a mistake? who left it here? There was a note on the bag and it said Happy Holidays and God bless. Matt told me that was the greatest gift he had ever received and the feeling he had seeing that meal on his porch caused this tough kid to cry. Matt continued to tell me that's why every year I decide to make a feast for an unfortunate family, because I know how that meant everything to me. Bam! I sunk in my chair like I didn't know what hit me. This was what this whole season was about, and Matt wasn't a church going person but he was able to teach me a lesson that day.

So my prayer for us as we transcend into the holiday season is to live into our traditions but to seek out the people that need our help. Matts life was changed that day because of the kind gesture of another, who knows what small or large action you take from the goodness of your heart can do.

Got An Idea or Two for the Youth? Talk to Chris.

Our new Youth Director, Chris LiPuma, cannot wait to meet you and talk to you about ideas for the youth group here at Hope. Please make every effort to introduce yourself to Chris when you see him, and let him know what you envision for the youth at Hope.

Youth Group

Hope's youth will meet on Tuesdays, November 10 & 24. On the 24 we will gather for a formal Thanksgiving Dinner as a youth group. We have an awesome group, an awesome God, and an awesome church. This November we are going to stop and say thank you for all those blessings.

Hope's Youth Group gathered twice in October for fellowship and fun!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Adult Advent Study: This year's Advent Study is "Angels". The study will begin on Sunday, November 29th 9:30-10:15am.

Confirmation

The next confirmation class will take place on Wednesday, November 18 at 7pm to discuss the gospel of John. Please encourage your confirmand to keep up on their Sunday School attendance and Sermon Notes.

3rd Graders: Walk Through the Bible!

Congrats to all who attended the Walk Through The Bible Courses and completed their (albeit, quite informal) Bible Scholarship Program, especially Cora Fleischman, Garrett Milks, and Ethan Hoffman.

A Look Ahead:

Hey 5th Graders! Don't forget that this January you will be spending your Sunday Morning Education time with Pastor Shawn as you learn all about the church year. You don't want to miss it

Christmas Pageant!

This year's Christmas Pageant is entitled Merry Christ-Mess! It is a great pageant that is sure to captivate the worshiper as the story of Christ's birth is brought to life. This year's pageant will take place during the 10:30am worship service on Sunday, December 20.

Practices:

To prepare for the pageant our youth will gather for practices on the three Wednesday nights prior. Those dates are December 2, 9, & 16. We will meet for pizza at 5:30pm and practice at 6pm. Our littlest youth (ages 3-2nd grades) only need plan on attending the practice on December 16, unless they'd like to attend more. We are always looking for parent volunteers to help coordinate kids and keep our practices running smoothly.

HOPE'S HAPPENINGS

Hope's Quilt Show from 10/2-4 was a huge success and raised over $4,000. Thanks to all who came out to serve or enjoy the quilts.

On Sunday, November 1 we gathered to remember the great cloud of witnesses that surrounds us, especially those who have died in the past year.

Brother's Keeper, InC., (JR!) was at it again helping the Schulers at their cottage on Java Lake. A huge thanks to the Bley brothers for their hard work.
